Three Spirited Contests in Madison Square Garden, in Which Real, Red Indians Participated.

CANADIANS TAKE THE HONORS.

Big Baseball Men Getting Ready to Settle up the Present Difficulties.

EALTHY, well fed young redskins were the Indians that took part in the lacrosse games in the big amphitheatre of the Madison Square Garden last evening before an audience that did not quite fill the immense structure. In fact there were iess than a thousand people present, but these seemed to find no end of enjoyment in watching the exciting sport before them. Three teams were presented, one of them being composed of members of the tribe of Caughnawanga Indians. The others were the representatives of the Montreal Lacrosse Club, amateur champions of Canada, and a placed team made up of members of the Druid Lacrosse Club, of Baltimore, and the Staten Island

The Canadians carried off all the honors. In the first game of the evening they faced the picked team, representing the United States, and after a spirited struggle, abounding in pretty plays, just managed to beat them by a score of 5 goals to

The first half of the game was by far better contested than the second. From the outset the Canadians kept the ball in their opponents' territory, and for fully two minutes only King's clever run ning and Penniman's clever defence at goal restrained them from scoring. The Americans, by the bail to the Canadian end of the field, and finally Ritchey, getting it on his stick, shot it past the ditchey, getting it on his stick, shot it past the Canadian goal keeper and scored the first point for his side. Time, five minutes.

When play was resumed the Canadians struggled manifully to retrieve the lost ground, but luck was against them. By a clever stop Pennington secured the ball and passed it to Symington, who by a masterly throw scored the second goal for the United States. Time, four minutes.

The third goal was scored by Pennington, of the American team, in just 65 seconds. Sheppard, the Canadian goal keeper, made a brave effort to stop the ball, but it came with too much force and passed between the posts despite the interposing stick.

Strington scored the Stick.

Spriggins scored the next goal for Canada by a good throw of twenty yards. Time, two minutes. Geraghty, for Canada, scored the next goal after nive minutes play. Time was called at the end of the first half with the ball daugerously near the Canadian goal. Score for the first half:-United States, 3; Can-ada, 2.

Between the first and second halves of the international game there was an imprompturace on anow shoes over the tan bark track by four of the Caughanwaga Indians. The distance was three laps, about a third of a mile, and it took the winner, Ositaketo, son of Big John, about five minutes to negotiate it.

Lacrosse play was then resumed, and a straight ner, Ositakete, son of Big John, about five minutes to negotiate it.

Lacrosse play was then resumed, and the Canadians quickly forged to the front, scoring three straight goals. Sheppard had the credit of all of them, scoring the first in four minutes, the scoond in six minutes and the third in five minutes. The American's defence throughout was very weak. The score now stood 5 to 5 in favor of the Canadians, and their opponents were forced to brace up. They did so, and managed to add one more goal to their score on a long run by King and clever throw by Symington, who sent the ball home at the expiration of two minutes' play. Time was called before another goal was made, and the Montreal players were declared the winners of the game by a score of 5 to 4. They received two silken banners as prizes—one emblematic of the championship and the other showing the national colors of the United States.

The Indian players, of whom much had been expected, falled wothly when put to the test, being twice beaten, first by the Montreal team and then by the United States players. The redshins seemed too fat to overexort themselves. In their game with the Montreal team they scored only one goal to their opponents' three, and in their o-ntest with the American team they were beaten by a score of 5 to 1. Onlinkets, the winner of the snowshor race, did all the scoring for his team in both games. The Indian team lined up as follows:—

BASE BALL DICKERS AND DEALS, MB. PRINCE, OF BOSTON, SAID TO HAVE BEEN

OFFERED $40,000 FOR HIS CLUP. There was considerable work done yesterday by the base ball men in preparation for the coming meetings of the League and Association. Messrs, Evrae and Goodwin bad a long conference in the morning relative to the present moddle in Brooklyn. It now turns out that Mr.

win has a long contension the morning relative to that Mr. E. F. Linten has been effered the par value of his stock in the l'Hayers' League club, but it has been refered by him. Anderson & Howland, the atterners for Messra, theodyin and Wallace, and yesterday that Mr. Linten's injunction wandight held at all. The case comes up in Brooklyn this morning.

Fresident Charles F. Frince, of the Boston Players League Club, was an early arrival in town yesterday, the said he was here on railroad business, but as he will not go home until to night it is almost certain that he will see President A. W. Thurman, of the American Association, who will arrive this morning from the West.

I have it on the excellent authority of Mr. T. H. Mnranc, of Reston, that the Hoston Trimuvirs—Seden Conant and Billings—have offered Mr. Prince through their lawyers $50,000 in cold cash to give up his club and grounds in Hoston, and that Mr. Prince is now considering his offer rather favorably, it seems that Prince has been gradually buying up the stock in the Hoston Players' League Club until now he holds the controlling interest. If he accepts the Boston League club's offer it will effectually block the Association's chances for getting a tranchise in Hoston.

Fresident Thurman will call the meeting of the Conference Committees on Monday evening. The League Will go into seasion Thessays morning and the american Association's gaining ground that everything will be settled amicably, but this has been said so often that it isn't advisable to bank on it.

THE COMING GREAT FIGHT.

INCREASING INTERPST IN THE DEMPSEY-FITZ-SIMMONS BATTLE AT NEW OBLEANS. BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.]

New ORLEANS, La., Jan. 9, 1891.—Interest in the Dempsey-Fitzsimmons fight is growing as the day for the battle approaches, and reliable news from the training quarters of the men is eagerly sought for. Little is given out, however, that will serve as a basis for betting. It is known that both men are in condition and there is every indication that the fight will be a long and desperate one.

Fitzsimmons, in the last few days, has given evidence of a phenomenal hitting power and the opinion of his friends is that if he can get in a blow he will soon put Dempsey to dence of a phenomenal hitting power and the opinion of his friends is that if he can get in a blow he will soon put Dempsey to sleep. He is active as a cat and a finished sparrer, and the Australian's admirers say he will find his opportunity before many rounds are finished. Dempsey's friends are prepared to concede that Jack is going up against a first class man, but they express full confidence in his ability to defeat Fitzsimmons, and show the faith that is in them by offering to back the "Nonpareli" heavily at even figures. Despite the news from Fitzsimmons' quarters which so encourages his friends, there has been no change in the betting, the backers of Fitzsimmons still belding out for odds of 10 to 7. They hold that this is not to be interpreted as any lack of faith in their man, but that Dempsey's reputation justifies their demand for odds.

ATENTION CALLED TO THEIR TRAINING.
Afeature of the training of the two should not be overlocked. Dempsey went into training two weeks after Fitzsimmons did, and has left his training quarters to give an exhibition at Dallas, which occupied going and coming three days. Dempsey will leave Galveston for New Orleans on Sunday afternoon, and will not be able to do much work after that, for upon his arrival here he will be besieged by admirers. On the other hand Fitzsimmons has not permitted anything to interfere with his work. He is evidently taking no chances, and will continue his training until the last possible moment, as he will not leave his quarters until Tuesday. The work he is taking is not of a character to exhaust his powers. It is light but regular, and it is certain that he will enter the ring in the pink of condition. He has his eye fixed on the templing $12,000 purse, and if he losses it will be only after he has done the best he could to win. Dempsey's friends soout the idea that his training is being neglected. They say that no one better than he understands when he is in thorough trim. or the blow a defeat next Wedinesday night would be to his reputatio

The next pair to most were Dan McVeigh, of the Standard A.C., and Thomas Burke, of the Acern A.A. McVeigh hit Burke with his left sight times, on each occasion scoring a knock down. McVeigh had such an apparent advantage that the referee stopped the bout after one minute and fifty two scoonds' fighting.

The next bout was between Mike Leonard, of the Varuna Boat timb, and Charles Bord, of the Engle A.C. Both men were singers, and fought at a terrific rate throughout, at the end of the third round the judges failed to pick the winner, and the referee ordered ainceller round. The Feathers without class.
The first bony in the 115 pound was a very lively one. The conteatents were -1. Berry, of the Chinon A.C., and William Butler of the William Butler A.A. After four rounds of bard fighting Butler wen.

R. Mullins, of the West Side A.C., and Matt Rice, of the Varuna Beat Club, met in the next bout in this class. Mullins clearly outpointed his man from the start, getting in some practy left hand jab and soveral good right hand swings. Every time Rice tried his famous awing Mullins met him with a staggering blow and did all the leading. The judges, however, could not name the winner, and the referoe stunned his hearers by giving the bout to Rice.

CLIFTON FAVORITES LAND THE MONEY.

Five First Choice Horses Beat Good Fields and Cause the Public to Rejoice.

LONG ISLAND SHOWS HE HAS SPEED

Honig's Stuble Furnishes Three Winners and Joe Courtney Lugs Heavy Weight to Easy Victory.

HE large crowd in attendance at the Clifton track yesterday saw very good racing, and those in the habit of backing favorites were exceedingly well pleased with the results of the several contests. Five races returned the first choice - horses the winners, and in the case of the sixth, a third choice, which was strongly supported, landed the money. D. A. Honig's horses took three events, and among the winners was Long Island, who was ridden so suspiciously last Wednesday when a great favorite, and was beaten by Chapman. There were howls of indignation at the time over the result, but nothing was done. In yester-day's work Long Island met, as a rule, a higher class of animals than on Wednesday. but he was made a strong favorite and won in a big gallop, his ten competitors not being able to get within lengths of him after the first sixteenth of a mile had been covered. The distance was one mile and an eighth, and Long Island was three lengths to the good at the finish. There were many meaning smiles after the race, while those who had lost on Long Island on Wednesday were more than ever convinced that they had then been wronged.

Eyrie B, won the first race of seven furlongs.
Howas the favorite at T to 5, and had no trouble in beating his field. Kyrle B, is owned by lioning Zenobia, from "Jimmy" McCormick's stable, was heavily supported as the first choice in the third race and she won without trouble. There were ten behind her at the finish.

Tipstaff, also a Honig trick, was the third victory pulled off by that turfman. Tipstaff was a 6 to 5 shot and he won in good shape. Jack Rose was second.

(dolden Reel took the fifth race without trouble, the favorite, Sparling, doing no better than fourth. The distance was one mile and a sixteenth.

Joe Courtney was full of running and landed the sixth event, one mile and a quarter, as he pleased. He was a strong favorite. St. Luke was the second choice and got the place. Details follow:

ARDINE W. CHANGES HANDS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HEBALD.] LEXINGTON, Ky., Jan. 9, 1801 .- E. A. Kinney, of Shelbyville, this State, has sold to E. A. Tipton, of this city, the unbeaten two-year-old trotting filly Ardine W., by Robert McGregor (2:17:5), dam by Administrator (2:29:5). Though her record of 3:01 has many times been beaten by a yearling, Ardine W. has the prestige of an unbeaton race record, and her mark was made on a half mile track.

The price paid for her is private, but it is understood to be one of the largest ever received for a filly of her age in this State. She has been entered extensively in states and will be campaigned next season by her new owner. this city, the unbeaten two-year-old trotting filly

Murphy. ciation, J. J. Ceburn, Harry Hosy and J. E. Murphy.
At the annual election of the Harlam Wheelmen the following officers were chosen:—T. A. Rafabee, president; J. M. Potter, vice president; Charles Wendehack, secretary; W. H. Deiraas, I treasurer; Robert B. Morrison, capitain; James P. Haight, curator. The election was unanimous, excepting in the vote for capitain, which was closely contanted. The club is moving rapidly to the front as one of the largest and most enthusiastic in the United Statos. Its prespects for the season under the able capitality of Robert Morrison are excellent. A reception will be held at the Harlem Opera House on the 22th inst. Invitations are extended to the neighboring clubs.

TIRED OF HYMEN'S CHAINS.

COUPLES WHO MARRIED NOT WISELY BUT TOO

WELL AND WOULD NOW LIVE APART. Twenty-year-old Louis Aronson, employed in Morris Hecht's jewelry store, at No. 242 Canal street, has appealed to the Court of Common Pleas street, has appealed to the Court of Common Pleas for an aunulment of his marriage to Miss Gertrude Deutsch, of No. 248 East Houston street, and for the last two years a fellow clerk of Aronson in the store of Hecht.

According to Aronson's story, he get into the habit of escorting Miss Gertrude to her home after work hours and also calling upon her in the evenings. Three months ago she suddenly asked him to marry her. He told her he did not love her and that anyway he should have to consult his parents before taking such a step. The next day when he met Gertrude in the store as usual she again asked him to marry her, and on his refusal became bysterical. Mr. Hecht advised him to marry the girl and offered to increase his wages from $5 to $40 a week.

At this point Gertrude's father rushed in and swore that unless he married his daughter he (Deutsch) would have him arrested for breach of promise.

(Deutsch) would have him arrested for breach of promise.

Young Arenson then yielded. He was taken to the house of Deutsch's son-in-law, at Fourth street and avenue C. and joined in matrimony to Gertrude by Rabbi Lowenthal. His father-in-law then told him that he could live apart from his wife for a year and Mr. Aronson immediately went home to his father, who, when he heard the story, instituted an action, as his son's guardian, to have the marriage annulled.

Clementina Nole, a minor, claims that she was frandulently led into a marriage with Autonio Manarello on November 3 last, and asks to have it annulled through her father as guardian.

Rachel Hurevitz, who keeps a millinery store on Grand street, has applied to the Court of Common Pleas for an absolute divorce from her husband. Sigmund, on the ground of his infidelity with a prestive milliner employed in the store. The par-

Sigmund, on the ground of his infidelity with a pretty milliner employed in the store. The parties were married in November, 1879, in Russia, and have two children. Judge Bischoff yesterday granted the wife $6 weekly alimony and $35 counsel fee pending the anit.
Judge Ingraham yesterday granted an absolute diverce to Mrs. Jules Bohlinger from her husband, Jules Bohlinger.

TWO OVERCOAT THIEVES CAUGHT. THEY OPERATED IN RESTAURANTS AND DINERS

WERE THEIR VICTIMS. Frank Emerson and Charles O'Donnell, expert sneak thieves, were committed in the Tombs yesterday morning, charged with stealing overcoats from restaurants. There are over fifty complaints on file against the prisoners. Their scheme worked well.

Emerson, wearing a very shabby overcoat, would Emerson, wearing a very snabop overcost, would walk into a restaurant down town, hang up the seedy garment and order a lunch. His confederate would follow him very closely, dressed in a light office coat, and order a lunch to be served in a burry.

The first fellow would take the first good coat he could find near his weatherbeaten garment and depart. He would be followed closely by the supposed clerk, who, if he found no one watching him, would take any coat he found near the door and set out.

Among their victims are J. K. Hosmer, of No. 460
Vanderbilt avenue, Brooklyn; J. D. Harrison, of
No. 876 Broadway, and A. B. Hannan, the shoe man-

No. 310 Broadway, who reported his loss to the police.
Mr. Harrison, who reported his loss to the police.
Said be paid $110 for the coat that was stolen.
Detective Sergoants Mulry and Mulvey arrested the supposed thieves. When they were searched at Police Headquarters pawn tickets for some of the stolen property were found in their peasession.
O Donnell, at the time of his arrest, was wearing Mr. Harrison's coat. In 1865 O'Donnell was arrested and sent to prison for a similar offence.

MRS. WITKOSKI LEFT TO MOURN.

Detectives are seeking Ralph Witkoski, who until yesterday did business as a tallor at No. 687 Eighth avenue. His wife charges him with taking her avenue. His wife charges him with taking her money and deserting her, and Henry H. Schaul, of No. 204 avenue A, Witkoski's brother-in-law, says that Witkoski obtained his signature to a promissory note for $550 under false pretences. Schaul has warned the public through the Hrinalb-not to receive the note.

I saw Mrs. Witkoski at her brother's residence yesterday. She said her husbaud had lived with her just eight weeks, and finding that she would give him no more money took his personal property and left her. He offered to furnish her evidence on which to secure a divorce. "A woman of the name of Nellie Samptner is at the bottom of it all," said Mrs. Witkoski. "All I ask is the return of the $1,400 that he obtained from me and a reasonable alimony."

The store at No. 687 Eighth avenue is in the hands of deputy sherids.

FIREMEN HURT AFTER A FIRE.

Fire broke out at half-past five o'clock yesterday morning in the office building at No. 24 Stone street, and before the firemen succeeded in extinstreet, and before the areason succeeded in extinguishing the flames the building was burned out. The loss is about $15,000, fully covered by insurance. After the fire was out Foreman O'Brien and Fromen Lynch and Gooler, of Truck No. 15, went into the building and were knocked down by a falling beam. Lynch was badly hurt and was taken to Bellevue Hospital. The other men escaped with a few bruises.

FAIR SKATING IN CENTRAL PARK.

Superintendent Parsons, of the Park Department, yesterday said that the skating in Central Park was likely to last for several days, at least, even under the most unfavorable circumstances. The quality of the ice was not all that could be desired owing to the recent snow storms, but it will bear any strain that may be but upon it.

Lovers of the sport who are unable to engage in it during the day may visit the frozen bonds in the evening, for they are well lighted. Skating will be permitted up to ten o'clock at night. THAT SELL THEM.

The Cold Weather and the Departure of the Holiday Season Helps to Revive the Trade.

WHAT IS DOING IN BULL'S HEAD.

A New Society Formed with a View to Improving the Breed of Hackneys.

F COURSE, the horse and carriage trade is picking up a little just now." said Mr. Oswald Baynes, of the American Horse Exchange, to me yesterday, "but we don't look for anything like a real revival until the latter part of February or the first week in March.

True, the holiday season is over, but its effects are still felt. The bad, frosty weather has helped us considerably by laying up old cripples and veteran horses, whose places have had to be filled, and this fact alone caused our last weekly sale to be a fairly good one. Carriage horses are the ones that are in most demand just now, and during the past week we have disposed of a number of singles and pairs at private sale. We are hampered, however, by the repairs that are being made on our building. Our limited space is largely taken up by workmen and material, and we can't furnish accommodations for half the horses whose owners wish to sell. Many Western consigners are waiting to send on their norses for sale, but we will not be able to receive them until the latter part of next month. Then we will have room for about four hundred and fifty horses, besides having extensive facilities for the display of carriages and harness. When that time comes a man can get a full rig here-horse, harness and vehicle-all com-AT VAN TASSELL & KEARNEY'S.

a good business in the private sale of carriages of late and has recently made some large additions to the stock which fills the upper floors of the repository. These include a full line of broughams and rocksways, suitable for the present season, together with a complete assortment of all other classes and grades of vehicles.

There is a renewal of activity in the trade among the stables and salesrooms that line the two blocks on East Twenty-fourth street from Lexington avenue to Second avenue. Mesers, J. H. Whitson & Son, of Nos. 144 and 146, have just ordered their Western agents to ship immediately several carloads of the best grade of business and carriage horses. These will arrive here early next week. At the last semi-weekly auction sale held by this firm some good prices were realized, among them being:—

lay readster; John Barker. 225

A number of business horses were sold at an average of $110 per head. Mr. W. Robertson purchased twenty cheap workers for shipmont to North Carolins.

It is probable that within the next few weeks there will be several additions to the firms holding auctions in Bull's Hoad. Seligman & Hahn have about completed arrangements to hold sales every Tuesday morning, beginning the latter part of this month, and Mr. Jacob Dahlmann is thinking of returning to suction sales, which he abandoned some time ago.

REAL ESTATE SALES.

OPERATORS ARE CONFIDENT AND ANTICIPATE & HIGHER BANGE OF PRICES.

After the active work of the week in real estate operations, which closed yesterday, operators and investors called a halt in order to review the situation. The business of the week, as has been shown in the columns of the Herald daily, was more encouraging than had been anticipated.

Negotiations as to vacant land, especially in north New York as far up as Yonkers, are steadily progressing, with promises of fair sales in the near

TO INVESTIGATE WITHOUT IVINS.

Mr. Albert B. Boardman, of the firm of Tracy. Maclarland, Boardman, Ivins & Platt, yesterday said that the Fassett Investigating Committee would continue its investigations just the same as would continue its investigations just the same as if Mr. Ivins were here to conduct the examination of witnesses. "Mr. Ivins was called to Europe unexpectedly," said Mr. Boardman, "but he will be able to start for home again on January 24. Meantime the committee will meet again as soon as senator Fassett can fix a date, and I will conduct the examination of witnesses." He could not guess how soon the committee would meet again.

ATLANTIC MONTHLY-JANUARY.

Among the fiction and poems of the Atlantic this month are scattered several solid articles which will repay reading. They are a plea by Cleveland Ablee for a new university course-one of terrestrial physics, "Compulsory Education," "Individualism in Education," "Boulangism and the Republic," and "The Lesson of the Pennsylvania Election," the latter being by Henry Charles Election," the latter being by Henry Charles Lea, who seems to think the revolt of the majority in the Keystone State was only against Quayism. Frank Stockton's "Tha House of Martha" centinues amusingly, his amanuensis becoming less "like a suiff, gray enveloped principle." In "An Inhorited Talont" Harriet W Preston gives some entertaining lettors written by a granduaughter of Mms. de Sevigna. "A Novelist of the Jura" will give many Americaus their-first knowledge of a Swiss writer-T. Combe, a woman whosa work would seem deserving of translation here, A new feature which promises to be pleasing is "Noto; An Unexplored Corner of Japan." which Persival Lowell begins in this number; it reminds one somewhat of "A Social Denarture," in which a feminine pen recently recorded some impressions of Japan.

THE NEW ENGLAND MAGAZINE.

A symposium on "The Future of the New England Country" should command the attention of all Yankee readers of this number. The contributors are John D. Long, George B. Loring, Rev. Samuel W. Dike and Rev. George A. Jackson, The subject is one on which many patriotic New Englanders think auxiously. Other articles saids from flotion which are pertinent to the section are on Greylock, the highest mountain in Massachusetts, and "A Descendant of Massachusetts, and "A Descendant of Massachusett." In "An American Landseet." Frank T. Robinson writes of Alexander Pops, of Boston, not Twickenham, and his paintings, the sketch being illustrated with a portrait of Mr. Pope and photogravures of a dozen of his paintings and sketches. Another illustrated article, of twenty pages and as many pictures, is entitled "Bells." There are several short stories that smack of the soil and make the magazine what it purports to be—a redection of a land whose sons and daughters are half homesick all over the United States.

THE OVERLAND-JANUARY.

What the New England Magazine is to the extreme East of our country the Overland is to the Pacific coast. It is true to the interests, scenes and traditions of the portion of the Union least seen and most wondered about by the great hedy of our population. A characteristic contribution is entitled "A Story of Transition." It is a sketch of Auburn, once a mining "bar," now a handsome and prosperous business centre of a large agricultural community, as well as the scene of hydraulic mining on a large scale. "The Future of our Fish Industry" is a paper showing that Californ a has outgrown the time whon small things were despised. The greater number of pages, however, are filled with sketches and fiction in which all the people and scenes are peculiar to the Pacific Coast. To become acquainted with the great and interesting section beyond the Rocky Mountains there is no other means so convenient and inexpensive as successive numbers of the Oseriand. population. A characteristic contribution is en-

THE UNIVERSITY MAGAZINE.

Ruford Franklin's illustrated sketch of Columbia College is continued in this number and contains some pictures which New Yorkers will recognize. "Adelbert College and the Western Reserve University" is the title of another illustrated paper. One of the most attractive pictures in the number is of the large and to control, pass upon, admit or reject all applications for such entries; to promote and hold exhibitions of horses and to improve the breef of hackney horses.

For the second instalment of William universities, and fresident Pepper has one on university extension. George William Curtis aplack's new erial story of the Scotch Crofters see the SUNDAY HERALD.
